

Name: XIONG Hang Nationality: Chinese
Tel: (0033) 669754468 Email: hangxiong2008@gmail.com
Address: 65 boulevard François Mitterrand,
BP-320 - 63009 Clermont Ferrand CEDEX 1

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

- PH.D. Candidate in Development Economics:
2008 - , CERDI (Centre d'Etudes et de Recherches sur le Développement International), University of Auvergne, Clermont-Ferrand, France. Title of thesis : Decentralization and environment in China
- Master in Development Economics:
September 2005 - November 2007, CERDI, University of Auvergne, France. Title of dissertation : Effects of the FDI on industrial water pollution in China. (Score: 15/20)
- Bachelor in Economics, major in World Economy, minor in French Language and Literature:
September 2001 - June 2005, Wuhan University, China
September 2004 - May 2005, exchange student in University of Auvergne, France

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Teaching assistant, Faculty of Economic Sciences, University of Auvergne, France.
October 2009 - July 2011 (General Economics, International Economics, Methodology)
- Intern in CIRAD (Centre de Coopération Internationale en Recherche Agronomique pour le Développement)
April 2006 - July 2006, Montpellier, France. Subject of internship: International Market Studies of the Carob for Morocco

WORKING PAPERS AND WORK IN PROGRESS

- Transboundary Pollution in China: a Study of the Location Choice of Polluting Firms in Hebei Province, with C. Duvivier, 2011, CERDI Working Paper No. 2011.17
- Strategic interactions in pollution behaviors across Chinese cities - A preliminary political economy framework and empirical evidences, with M. F. Renard, in progress
- Effects of one-sided fiscal decentralization on environmental efficiency of Chinese provinces, in progress
- Decentralization and Local Environmental Protection: Evidence from Chinese Municipalities, in progress

COMMUNICATIONS

- Decentralization and Local Environmental Protection: Evidence from Chinese Municipalities, in progress
 - ✓ 7th International Conference on the Chinese Economy, CERDI- Auvergne University (France) - October 2009
- Transboundary Pollution in China: a Study of the Location Choice of Polluting Firms in Hebei Province
 - ✓ Conference on "Sustainable Development, Territories and Firms Location Decisions: toward a Sustainable Attractivity", LAREFI, ADAGE, University of Bordeaux 4 – September 2011
- Strategic interactions in pollution behaviors across Chinese cities - A preliminary political economy framework and empirical evidences

- ✓ 3rd Summer School on the Chinese Economy, CERDI-Auvergne University (France) – July 2010
- ✓ Regions and the Environment, Regional Studies Association Winter Conference 2010, London, UK - November 2010
- ✓ Doctoral Meetings in Development Economics, University of Orléans (France) - April 2011
- ✓ PACE 2011 International Symposium on Environmental Economics and Policy in China, Hangzhou (China) - July 2011
- Effects of one-sided fiscal decentralization on environmental efficiency of Chinese provinces, in progress
 - ✓ Seminar, CERDI - Auvergne University (France) - October 2011
 - ✓ 8th International Conference on the Chinese Economy, CERDI- Auvergne University (France) - October 2011

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

- Member of "Projects Without Borders" (NGO for international solidarity)
October 2008 -, Clermont-Ferrand, France
- Pedagogic tutorship
October 2006 - April 2007, organized by the A.F.E.V. (Association of the student foundation of the city) of Clermont-Ferrand, France

AWARDS

- "Theillard de Chardin" Scholarship for PH.D. Students, Auvergne Regional Council (France), 2005 - 2009
- -Scholarship for Excellence, Wuhan University (China), (2001, 2002, 2003)

LANGUAGE COMPETENCIES

- Chinese: native
- English: upper-intermediate level (TOEIC 895/990)
- French: proficient

COMPUTER SKILLS

Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Publisher); Stata; Matlab (beginner) and Arcgis (beginner)